

REV. DR. R. N. SLEDD.

DEATH OF THIS EMINENT METHODIST DIVINE.

HE PASSES AWAY IN GEORGIA.

While on a Visit—His Last Sermon in Danville—The Funeral Arrangements—Sketch of His Long and Useful Career.

DANVILLE, VA., May 15.—(Special.)—Rev. Robert Newton Sladd, D. D., of the Virginia Methodist Conference, expired shortly after noon to-day at Grady Hospital, Atlanta, Ga. The tidings were borne to the official body of Main-Street church, of this city, in a telegram received shortly after 1 o'clock. The announcement caused universal sorrow throughout the city, as it will cause throughout the State when it becomes known. The remains will arrive here from Atlanta at 1:30 to-morrow and at 6 o'clock in the evening the funeral services will take place from Main-Street church. Bishop J. C. Granbery will officiate, and Rev. P. C. Whitehead, D. D., will assist. At midnight the remains, accompanied by the relatives and representatives of the church, will be conveyed to Powhatan county for interment at the family home-stead. The death of Dr. Sladd was in the nature of a painful aneurysm, in view of the reassuring tidings that came from day to day during his illness. It was known that the venerable patient was seriously ill, but it was not believed that his malady would terminate fatally. Dr. Sladd left Danville for Nashville, on Monday, May 1st, to attend a meeting of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Southern Methodist Church, of which he was president. He was to have returned to Danville on Wednesday, but he was unable to do so, and he died in Nashville, where he was stricken ill, and removed to Grady Hospital. He was attended by two of the most eminent physicians of Georgia—Drs. Nicholson and Hurt.

CHANGE FOR WORSE.

Reassuring messages were sent out to hundreds of inquirers until last Sunday. On that day a decided change for the worse occurred, and the family physician, Dr. W. L. Robinson, of this city, at the urgent request of the official body of Main-Street church, left last evening for Atlanta, where he arrived at the hospital the patient had passed beyond medical skill, and to-day between 12 and 1 o'clock the end was announced.

SOUTHERN CONCERNS.

Among them are the Birmingham Rolling Mill Company, Birmingham, Ala., and other kindred industries. The Pioneer Mining and Manufacturing Company, of Birmingham, owns 25,000 acres of land, of which 14,700 are coal, 8,500 red and brown iron-ore, 500 lime-stone, and 1,750 of other character at the furnace and coke plants near Thomas, Ala. By these acquisitions the company will be largely independent of all other interests in the iron industry.

The case of Rafael Ortiz, a native of Porto Rico, charged with the murder of Private John Burke, Company C, Forty-seventh New York Regiment, at Camp San Juan, on February 21st last, and whose sentence of death was commuted to imprisonment for life, the President has directed that he be committed to the Minnesota State prison at Stillwater.

Dependence on the gun. "He appears to have depended greatly upon the gun when the party was ambushed on April 1st. Twice it failed to work, and time was lost in overhauling it, and great delay was consumed in trying to get it through the wire fences. Lieutenant Lansdale was loath to abandon it, but the fire was so galling that before he was wounded he was compelled to leave the important part and leave it behind. Prudence led him to deploy his men in open order. The thicket was so dense that after the order for retreat was sounded it was not possible for the groups to render each other mutual support.

"Lansdale was wounded below the knee, and rendered incapable of marching. He was assisted by his men. One of them, E. E. Edsall, ordinarily a coward, was now a hero, and he stood by him. It is not clear when Mr. Lansdale received the wound in his chest.

"It is in evidence most clear that when Kinsig Monaghan discovered that Lieutenant Lansdale was wounded, he used his best endeavors to convey him to the rear, and, seizing a rifle from a disabled man, made a brave defense, but undoubtedly he fell very shortly after joining him, bore down on our men in their vicinity. The men were not in sufficient numbers to hold out any longer, and they were forced to withstand. Kinsig Monaghan did stand. He stood between the wounded superior and friend; one rifle against many—one brave man against a score of savages. He knew he was doomed. He could not yield. He died in the heroic performance of duty.

"The number of cartridges fired by each of the blue-jackets averaged thirty. From what appears to be reliable authority, forty of the assailants were killed and fifty wounded. This information was obtained several days after the engagement. Whenever our men could get cover they turned and fired."

The British story of the affair is told briefly by Lieutenant G. E. Cave, in an

CAN AND WILL THEY BE RETIRED AS IF REGULARS?

LECTURE ON COMMODORE MAURY.

Personal and Postal Notes—Senator Daniel Goes to Lynchburg for a Stay of Some Weeks—Army Orders.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15.—(Special.)—It is as yet an undecided question whether Generals Fitzhugh Lee and Joe Wheeler can be retired with the pay of brigadiers in the regular army, if they reach the age-limit of 64 before being mustered out. In July, 1899, when the term of service of the 35,000 additional regulars expires, a high authority in the War Department is of the opinion that they cannot be so retired, unless by a special act of Congress, but he said, as above stated, that it is an undecided question.

"The Secretary of War thinks," he continued, "that they can, and will be retired with full pay if they reach the age-limit before being mustered out of service; but he does not know anything more about it than that."

Senator John W. Daniel, who has been here for several weeks attending the sessions of the Industrial Commission, of which he is a member, left for his home, at Lynchburg, today, and will not return here until some time next month.

Colonel William H. Stewart, the well-known litterateur of Portsmouth, Va., will deliver a lecture on Thursday evening next, before the Confederate Veterans Association, at the hall, 1111 Eleventh street, northwest, this city, on the life and character of Commodore Matthew Fontaine Maury. There will be many present to hear him.
